

CELEBRATION OF KRISHNA JANMASHTAMI

- The melody of flute, the spirit of devotion.

On 19th August 2025, Bhonsala Military School celebrated Krishna Janmashtami with unmatched devotion and joy. The entire campus echoed with festive cheer as Ramdandees, staff, and dignitaries came together for prayer, games, and competitions.

The celebration truly ushered to the festive atmosphere. Mr Rahul Dixit, Secretary CHMES, Nagpur Division, Col Amarendra Hardas, Commandant, Squadron Leader Sangeeta Thakur, CATO, Mr Ajay Shirke, Principal, BMS, Dr J S Riar, Principal BSS and academic and non-academic staff were present on the occasion. Various fun games and Inter-Company Dahi Handi Competition were held on the occasion. The brief of the games conducted is given in the succeeding paragraphs.

The Krishna Janmashtami celebration was more than just games-it was an embodiment of Lord Krishna's eternal values. Each competition reflected teamwork, devotion, and joy, echoing the timeless wisdom. With devotion in their hearts and discipline in their actions, the Ramdandees celebrated Janmashtami as a festival of faith, joy, and unity.

“Let a man lift himself by his own self alone; for the self alone is his friend, and the self alone is his enemy.” - Bhagavad Gita

Before the event commenced, Mrs Asha Wankhede (Asst-Teacher) extended warm greetings, reminding the Ramdandees of the eternal message of Lord Krishna. She emphasized that 'the life and teachings of Bhagwan Shri Krishna inspire humanity towards self-realization and discipline through Dharma.'

Shuttle Race: A Dash of Speed and Strategy

The playground erupted with energy as Ramdandees sprinted across to collect glasses into baskets. Every second mattered, every move was cheered by a roaring crowd. It wasn't just a race—it was a test of agility, focus, and teamwork.

Winner of the Shuttle Race was Subhash Chandra Bose Company.

Dahi Handi 2025: Celebrating Courage, Unity, and the Spirit of Krishna

The much-awaited Dahi Handi festival was celebrated at Bhonsala Military & Sainik School with pomp, gaiety, and boundless enthusiasm. The campus resonated with the beats of dholaks and drums, while cheers of encouragement filled the air.

Teachings from the Gita

“You have a right to perform your duty, but not to the fruits of your actions.” - Bhagavad Gita

The Thrill of the Competition

With 30 Ramdandees per company participating, the atmosphere was electric. Human pyramids rose one after another, as Ramdandees stood shoulder to shoulder, balancing trust, strength, and coordination. Rival teams tried their best to disrupt attempts with splashes of water, yet every pyramid stood strong, proving that resilience comes from unity.

The vibrant display of courage and camaraderie made the competition more than just a contest—it became a lesson in perseverance and faith.
